Painting: Floors & Walls still need painted. Dave did buy the paint.

Education: Wanda attended the DCED class on "Organizational Meeting on December 15th

Liberty Fire: The hood still needs welded and bell needs placed. John said they would probably have to do it themselves.

Quote from CKG Area Authority: Dave will call Jerry regarding this to see what the engineers say about the water for Goshen Township.

New Business:

Organizational Meeting- This was held on January 5th prior to the regular monthly meeting.

CD's converted into a Money Market Account- The best CD rate was 3.25%, the money market account is 3.4% for 90 days. It was decided to place the money there for the additional .15%

Ascendance Truck Center- Wanda contacted them about our refund and they are looking into it because the company's billing department was taken over by a third party billing company but it was before the buyout. They are hoping to have it to us before the end of the month.

Education Opportunities: Wanda gave lots of learning opportunities for the supervisors to attend and were declined. Wanda will attend the Year End Reporting by DCED on January 12th. Wanda will attend the Clearfield County Conservation Meeting on January 6th to help the Jerry Run Grant to be completed and accepted. Wanda will consider the PSAT's Annual Conference in April.

Newly Elected Positions- James Sankey, Supervisor, Ayren Kovalick, Auditor, Deborah Livergood, Auditor. We welcome all of them.

Roadway Report:

License Plate: We finally received the license plate and title for the backhoe.

Load Counts for PPG were 37 and for Earthmovers 48

Letter or Call: The Supervisors would like a letter or attempt to call Big Buck Lumber about the Hansey Rd. They will need to get the road fixed before bond is released. The supervisor's would like to fix it this spring. Wanda will attempt to call if no success she will write a letter to contact us.

Permits:

No permits issued this month. We will be contacting Brian Ruble regarding the cabins on the river. We decided to wait until the beginning of the year and the resident has done nothing about this issue. Therefore, we will seek Brian Ruble to handle this going forward. Wanda will contact Brain and get the actual 911 address.
